

To whom it may concern:

Tanmoy Sarkar Pias has worked with Move Your Chains as a part-time remote intern for approximately six months, February 2017 - July 2017. He has also completed a seven months part-time job from August 2017- February 2018. In that time, he has proven himself an essential part of our team, repeatedly and continually demonstrating his capacities in English conversational, oral and written ability, as well as organizational and technical skills. His primary responsibilities included software development and web development, requirement analysis, testing code and bug fixing. He is highly motivated, friendly, and a quick learner. We are pleased with his performance and urge you to consider his application for any position. Please feel free to contact us should you have any questions.
